On November 2, 1966, Lieutenant [], Baltimore County Police Bureau, advised that he is in charge of the investigation of the robbery of the Mars Supermarket. Lieutenant [] advised that the cashier at Mars Supermarket was robbed by a white male individual, who was about 5' 8" and weighed approximately 160 pounds. He was observed by the cashier and another witness entering the 1966 [] [], Maryland license [], which was registered to []. This car was subsequently located by officers of the Baltimore County Police Bureau and placed under surveillance. Later it was taken into custody and towed to the Baltimore County impounding garage. A search warrant was obtained by the Baltimore County Police and a search of the vehicle disclosed the missing cash drawer, a Khaki army field jacket, a shotgun and an M-1 rifle with the serial number filed off. Also located were tins of water and food. Lieutenant [] advised that photographs of [] were shown to witnesses who were able to say that the individual who was driving the car appeared to be of a similar build. At that time, he was wearing an army-type jacket and black slacks. He has not been reported to have been seen until October 31, 1966, when he was seen at his home. He stated that he had also been advised that neighbors of FRANKHOUSER have reported having seen a [], apparently fitting the description of the car owned by [], in the neighborhood of FRANKHOUSER's house several times in the past month.

A canvass of sources in the Baltimore area failed to indicate that ROY E. FRANKHOUSER was known to have been in the Baltimore area on October 29, 1966.

APPENDIX

AMERICAN NAZI PARTY OF THE WORLD UNION OF FREE ENTERPRISE NATIONAL SOCIALISTS, ALSO KNOWN AS THE GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL PARTY (CONT'D)

According to the "Stormtrooper's Manual", an official publication of the ANP, the phases of ANP struggle for power are fourfold, namely, first "to make ourselves known to the masses"; second, "the dissemination of our program and truth about the Party"; third, "organizing the people who have been converted to our propaganda"; and fourth, "the attainment of power through the votes of the newly-won masses."

On August 19, 1966, the source advised that George Lincoln Rockwell presently believes that he has completed the first two phases in his struggle for power and is well into the third stage, to wit, "the organizing of the people who have been converted to our propaganda". The source added that Rockwell had previously believed that he would be elected Governor of Virginia in November, 1965, and when defeated, he made the statement that he was not ready for stage four.

From: Director, FBI

RACIAL MATTERS (KLAN)

ReBHRad 11-1-66 and BAairtel enclosing LHM, both dated 11-2-66.

Both Philadelphia and Baltimore Offices should furnish this case continuing attention in an effort to determine whether Frankhouser is involved in the robbery which occurred at Baltimore on 10-29-66. Until he is definitely eliminated, both offices should make full use of informants and sources to determine his activities on 10-29-66 and thereafter.

Philadelphia should advise whether Frankhouser has returned home since that date and, if not, should attempt to develop information regarding his whereabouts. Philadelphia also advise basis for describing [redacted] as [redacted] [redacted] since Baltimore sources apparently have no information in this regard.

Both Baltimore and Philadelphia should furnish all background information available regarding [redacted] his affiliation with any organization, description, and other pertinent background information. Baltimore follow this investigation closely with local authorities to insure Bureau interests are protected. It would, of course, be most desirable to have Frankhouser identified as the subject in this holdup case since his arrest on serious charges of this nature would deal a damaging blow to the Klan in Maryland and in Pennsylvania.

b7D FRANKHOUSER at FRANKHOUSER's home REGINA KUPISZEWSKI came in. She and FRANKHOUSER had an argument over money, they were screaming and yelling at ~~each other~~ each other. REGINA skouted that she would go to a lawyer and tell him how FRANKHOUSER secured her signature on " the agreement" and when FRANKHOUSER asked what she was talking about she said that he had come to her place with a gun and threatened her, forcing her to sign.

Later FRANKHOUSER explained to [redacted] that REGINA had signed an agreement, promising not to bring any action against him for [redacted], upon his promise to pay her $ 10.00 weekly for [redacted]. FRANKHOUSER said that REGINA is threatening to get another attorney to break the agreement she signed.

b7D According to FRANKHOUSER, [redacted] had been up to see him a couple days ago, and [redacted] is planning some "action" in Kensington next week. There was a ~~plaque~~ plaque on the wall in FRANKHOUSER's second floor livingroom which was broken and had a hole in it. FRANKHOUSER said that when [redacted] was there the other day FRANKHOUSER had been showing him his new .38 special, the Charter Arms revolver, when it went off , narrowly missing [redacted] and struck the plaque. FRANKHOUSER exhibited what he said was the slug and it bore what appeared to be an impression of some of the engraving from the plaque.

FRANKHOUSER and [redacted] went out to State Hill to do some shooting. When they arrived there was a black panel truck there, bearing U.S. Government license. FRANKHOUSER talked to one of the men there who said that they were from the Army Corps of Engineers and were doing some test boring in the area, which is the site of a proposed dam. After being assured that none of these men ~~were~~ were back in the impact area FRANKHOUSER and [redacted] did some firing. FRANKHOUSER told one of the men he spoke to that the land belonged to him.

ROY FRANKHOUSER on this date told [] about his trip to Media, Pa., 10/26/66. FRANKHOUSER said he had tried to get a ride with [] but [] had another meeting and was not going, so FRANKHOUSER had to take a train. He said he left at 2:30 PM. The meeting was at the Holiday Inn, Media, Pa., at 8 PM and was written up in the Philadelphia Inquirer. FRANKHOUSER said that he had not known of the meeting until he received a telephone call from the Associated Press, asking him if he was attending. FRANKHOUSER was annoyed that [] had not told him of the meeting earlier and said that he feels [] is "backing out" of these activities because he is hoping to get [] funds to attend school because of [].

According to FRANKHOUSER, at the Holiday Inn there were about 500 persons present. DePUGH had asked FRANKHOUSER where [] was and ROY told him that [] was broke and was ashamed to come because he could not make any financial contribution. FRANKHOUSER also claimed that he had "spotted" TABBUTT there and had it announced over the public address system that there was an infiltrator present. TABBUTT was thus forced to leave.

FRANKHOUSER told [] that on this date (10/27/66) he had been to see Attorney [] on [], and had signed an agreement to pay REGINA $ 5.00 per week for []. FRANKHOUSER mentioned also that he is broke. He said that he is unable to pay the bills on the house and may lose it, his car was also confiscated in Maryland because he had been unable to pay the storage and repair bills.

[] was also upset because he had not been advised of the meeting in Media.

[] on 10/27/66 delivered to FRANKHOUSER the papers, letters, etc., that FRANKHOUSER had asked for earlier, and which he allegedly wants to use in

DETAILS:

I. RESIDENCE

Confidential Informant PH T-1 advised on October 25, 1966, that ROY FRANKHOUSER continues to reside at the house he inherited from his father, located at 133 South Fourth Street, Reading, Pa.

II. EMPLOYMENT

Confidential Informant PH T-2 advised on July 14, 1966, that ROY FRANKHOUSER has not been employed for "years," and is existing on money from his mother. He repeatedly promises to drop his "political activities," as he refers to them, and get a job; but, when subject's stepfather tries to help him get employment locally, he refuses. He, likewise, refuses his stepfather's suggestions to leave this area where he is well known by sight and reputation, and seek employment elsewhere to get a fresh start.

Confidential Informant PH T-1 advised on October 25, 1966, that ROY FRANKHOUSER is not gainfully employed, and has not worked for years. He apparently derives some money from his speaking engagements, but apparently is broke most of the time.

III. CURRENT POSITION IN ORGANIZATIONS

Characterizations of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, (UKA, KKKK) of the American Nazi Party (ANP), and of the Minutemen are included in the Appendix of this report.

PH 105-4158

A. United Klans of America, Inc.,
Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (UKA, KKKK):

Confidential Informant PH T-3 reported on March 15, 1966, that on March 11, 1966, a private meeting of ROBERT SHELTON, Imperial Wizard of the UKA, KKKK, with Klan officers of Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Delaware was held at the Lord De La War Hotel, Wilmington, Del. ROY FRANKHOUSER was stripped of all papers and rank in the Klan.

The "Reading Eagle," a daily Reading, Pa., newspaper, in its issue of April 10, 1966, carried an article quoting MICHAEL DESMOND, self-proclaimed leader of the UKA, KKKK, for Pennsylvania. This article quoted DESMOND as saying that ROY FRANKHOUSER had been kicked out of the Klan because he was too much an American Nazi.

The "Reading Eagle," in its issue of April 11, 1966, carried a news item denying the report of the previous day. DESMOND was quoted as saying that he and FRANKHOUSER are close friends, and that FRANKHOUSER is still State Leader of the UKA.

Confidential Informant PH T-4 advised on April 23, 1966, that according to [redacted] who claims to be in frequent contact with ROY FRANKHOUSER, FRANKHOUSER was kicked out of the Klan because a "kitty" of $300 was missing and, also, because it had been discovered that he had lied about membership of the local group. Actually, there were a lot fewer members than FRANKHOUSER had reported.

b7C

Confidential Informant PH T-1 advised on May 17, 1966, that ROY FRANKHOUSER said he was running the Klan; that MIKE DESMOND was only a "front." FRANKHOUSER said he would be speaking at Klan rallies this summer.

PH- 105 - 4158

"MINUTEMEN"

The "Minutemen" was organized in June, 1960. Its present headquarters are Norborne, Missouri, and ROBERT B. DE PUGH, Norborne, Missouri, is the national coordinator. Statements by DE PUGH and literature distributed by the organization in the past indicated its purpose to be the resistance to, and exposure of, the spread of Communist influence within the United States; for the formation of a guerrilla or underground organization to combat the troops of any foreign powers which might eventually occupy this country; and resist passage of laws which would regulate private ownership of firearms.

The Kansas City Star Newspaper, Kansas City, Missouri, has on numerous occasions, carried various articles concerning DE PUGH and the "Minutemen" where in it was stated that members of the organization participate in maneuvers utilizing guerrilla tactics with machine guns, mortars, grenades, and other firearms.

DE PUGH has publicly stated on numerous occasions that the "Minutemen" as an organization does not buy or store arms or ammunition; however, the individual members of the organization maintain arms and ammunition, which is their constitutional right.

"Minutemen" literature mailed to members in the past has furnished instructions in the use of explosives and has also given details for the making of explosive compounds from such readily accessible ingredients as a common fertilizer, ammonium nitrate.

In May, 1966, a confidential source advised that ROBERT B. DE PUGH, in a recent message to the national coordinators of "Minutemen", announced the "Minutemen" organization was being divided into two separate bodies. One group to be composed directly of members who have been able to maintain complete secrecy of their identity, from both the public and from Government investigative agencies. The second group to be made up of all members who have publicly identified, or who there is reason to believe have been identified as "Minutemen" members by an agency of the Federal Government.

In announcing the re-organization, DE PUGH stated that a complete resistance movement involving total resistance, must involve not only guerrilla warfare and not only resistance warfare, but that it must involve psychological and political warfare as well.

DE PUGH stated that what he was proposing and trying to effect was to build a political party that as such would have legal immunity, which would serve as a communications network for patriots that have other interests, and among whose members these other patriots can maintain their secrecy of identity. All future correspondence and communications on the national level will be done in the name of the Patriotic Party. DE PUGH also advised that if ever called to court, as he expected to be in the future, he was going to state that as far as the national organization is concerned, the "Minutemen" had ceased to exist.

DE PUGH, in the announcement, continued to the effect there is no reason why at some future date, when the environment is more conducive to military action, that the Patriotic Party cannot be used once again to pull together various local organizations into one national organization. By acting both as a front and as a means of coordination, the Patriotic Party can be invaluable in the building of a future resistance movement.

Reference is made to memorandum dated October 25, 1966, at Newark, New Jersey, under the above caption.

Patrolman [redacted], Bridgeton Police Department advised on November 5, 1966, that the scheduled White Crusader's motorcade through Bridgeton, prior to the crusader rally and cross burning in Cedarville, New Jersey, scheduled for 7:00 p.m. that date, did not materialize.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on November 5, 1966, that the New Jersey Chapter of the White Crusaders of the North held a rally and cross burning in an open field of the Cedarville Roads, Cedarville, New Jersey, between the hours of 8:00 and 8:35 p.m. that date. He stated that approximately 80 to 85 spectators were present. He said that the rally was opened by Ben Sprang (phonetic) of Wilmington, Delaware, who introduced Frank W. Rotella, Jr. as the leader of the New Jersey Chapter of the White Crusaders and the guest speaker as Roy Frankhouser from Pennsylvania. Source added that SPRANG spoke from a flat bed truck and referred to himself as a general contractor and former Klan member.

Source recalled that Frankhouser talked about New Jersey being one of the most unconstitutional states in the nation because of its recently enacted gun laws and suppression of right wing demonstrations. Frankhouser described the laws of fire arms to citizens of New Jersey for self protection while Negroes are allowed to commit crimes of assault, robbery and rape. Frankhouser made reference to Abraham Lincoln's freeing of the slaves claiming that if Lincoln had lived he would have shipped the Negroes to Liberia to form their own nation.

Dear Mr. Jamison,

Since becoming a member of North American Mensa last February, I have been unable to arrive at a clear decision regarding the purpose of this organization. After discussing the topics of several meetings with friends, many felt that the group may in some way be tainted.

*Frankhauser - 105-4158-245
Munro - 105-3918-168
107-108-17*

The invited speakers and their topics are meant to be thought provoking and I have found them to be so. Some of those invited to speak have been Roy Frankhauser, Hal Falcon, PhD. (Grapho-Analysis), Munro ~~Clarence Ferguson~~, and last Friday evening - Marvin Burak of Radio Free Philadelphia, who mentioned that he suspected F.B.I. agents to be in attendance. This, I believe, really prompted my letter.

Individually taken, each speaker seemed innocent enough, but it is the overall trend that leaves me dubious. Recently I received an invitation to subscribe to the 'Modern Utopian', published at Tufts University. I have a feeling that my address was obtained from the Mensa Register, although it may have come from some other source.

I would be grateful to learn whether this organization is what it professes to be or if membership is other than desirous.

In confidence - Very truly yours,

[] this date recieved a call from []. He said he was very sorry for not contacting him earlier but he has been very busy. He has been working six days a week and now he is getting klan activity in the Philadelphia area also. b6 b7C

[] suggested that if he is too busy to get up to the York area perhaps the applicant that was sponsored by [] could be sworn in at one of the other towns that have a group started and at the same time the York group could gain experience. [] said there would more than likely be a meeting the week of October 24 in Downingtown, and that he would give [] an advanced notice of it so he could attend. b6 b7C

[] then called [] and explained the situation and he said that he was quite sure it would be agreeable with the others. b6 b7C

[] also mentioned that Frankhouser is on his last legs with the klan and that they pay little or no attention to him. He also said [] is completely out and that came from Robert Shelton himself. b6 b7C

He explained to [] that to have a chapter and be eligible to keep half the dues in a local chapter it has to have twenty five members. However in the case of this new member he would be bringing to Downingtown the ten dollars initiation fee would be returned to the York Chapter in the form of books and littiture. He was also glad to hear that [] was ordering a robe, and upon hearing it told [] he would most likely be the one to keep records once things got going in the York area. It is []s impression that this new applicant is a member of years gone by and that he too like [] will bring some of these men back into the fold. b6 b7C

"Mike Desmond has been permanently assigned to Virginia for mainly two reasons. First, by holding two rallies on Friday and Saturday it gives the public the impression that the Klan is much larger than it actually is and second, Kornegay still faces the possibility of prison after October, and if he has to go away then Desmond will take over. Desmond is not one of the seven Grand Dragons that are in trouble at the moment. Frankhouser is back, but it is unlikely that he will be assigned to Penna. as he is too close to Rockwell. At this time, Shelton does not want the Klan to be publicly associated with the American Nazi Party. George Bachas stated that Frankhouser discredited the former Grand Dragon of Delaware and caused him to be removed. Rockwell was in Portsmouth on the Saturday prior to his Sunday meeting in Norfolk and Bachas believes that he met with the two members of his Party that live in Portsmouth.

"George Bachas has a friend who is a Senior at Old Dominion College. His name is [redacted]. Bachas wants him to join liberal groups at the college to determine if any civil rights movements are in operation there and to find out why they are, how many are involved, who is in charge, and the source of their funds. b6 b7C

The New Jersey chapter of the WHITE CRUSADERS OF THE NORTH held a rally and crossburning in an open field off the Cedarville Road, Cedarville, N.J., between the hours of 8:00 - 8:35 p.m. on 11/5/66. Approximately 80-85 spectators were present. The rally was opened by BEN SPRANG (phonetic) of Wilmington, Delaware, who introduced FRANK W. ROTELLA, JR. as the leader of the New Jersey chapter of the WHITE CRUSADERS and the guest speaker as ROY FRANKHOUSER of Pennsylvania. SPRANG, speaking from a flat bed truck bearing the name "Cherivitch, RD #2, Palatine Road, Elmer, N.J.", referred to himself as a general contractor and former Klan member.

FRANKHOUSER spoke about New Jersey being one of the most unconstitutional states in the nation because of its recently enacted gun law and suppression of right wing demonstrations. FRANKHOUSER decried the loss of firearms to citizens of New Jersey for self-protection while Negroes are allowed to commit acts of ~~XXX~~ assault, robbery and rape. He made reference to ABRAHAM LINCOLN's freeing of the slaves and claimed that had ~~XXXXXX~~ LINCOLN lived, he would have shipped the Negroes to Liberia to form their own nation. FRANKHOUSER ended his speech with an announcement that another rally and crossburning would be held at that site on 11/19/66.

FRANKHOUSER was followed by an unidentified white female 30-35 years of age, 5'3"-4", 125-130 lbs with bleached blonde hair who related that she had been raped by a Negro in about October, 1965, and that the Negro was acquitted on perjured testimony of defense witnesses when the case came to trial in Chester, Penna., a year later.

Shortly before the rally got underway, FRANKHOUSER was in conversation with several unidentified men who had arrived in a late model [] sedan bearing Delaware license []. About this same time an unidentified white male approximately 55 years of age, 5'10", 200 lbs, who had arrived as a passenger in a new [] bearing New Jersey license [] commented to his associates that "we" had passed out 4000 leaflets advertising the rally in Hammonton, and Millville, among other places.

The rally concluded with the lighting of a cross by

75 Attend Cross-Burning In Field Near Millville

Millville, Nov. 5—Frank W. Rotella Jr., who quit under fire last June asking klan members of the New Jersey Ku Klux Klan to head a cross-burning rally on a nearby farm tonight.

The 30-foot cross was set ablaze in a plowed field on a 65-acre farm on the Cedarville-Millville road at the conclusion of the rally, which featured Roy Frankhouser, grand dragon of the Pennsylvania Ku Klux Klan, as the principal speaker.

About 75 persons attended the rally, described by Rotella as a meeting held to hallow the ground where the cross was burned.

He said the rally was staged by the White Crusaders of the North, and that another rally will be held at the same place in two weeks.

Rotella said he had arranged to lease the site for the rally from the farm's owner, Allan Rauschert, a Millville factory worker.

The site is about six miles mingled with the 65-acre farm from a Bridgeton farm where they said there was no fire. A cross was burned last May, a violation since the cross was and for which Rotella was arrested for violating forest fire regulations and fined $50 and costs.

Later, the State Supreme Court issued an order restraining the Ku Klux Klan from holding cross-burning meetings.

A score of state troopers was on hand for the rally tonight. Uniformed troopers patrolled the area and plain clothesmen

Frankhouser Speaks at Klan Rally

Cedarville, N.J., Nov. 5 (P) — The fiery cross of "white supremacy" blazed across the flatlands of southern New Jersey Saturday night.

A 25-foot cross drenched with kerosene was ignited by Frank W. Rotella Jr., ex-Ku Klux Klan leader of New Jersey and now leading "The White Crusaders Of The North."

State and local police cars lined the road just off the property. The 45-minute demonstration was completed without any incident.

Rotella, who said he resigned from the Klan for "personal reasons," said the cross burning symbolized "our right to express and to believe in Christianity." He described the White Crusaders as a "Christian organization."

The two main speakers were Roy Frankhouser, of Reading,

Pa., who said he was the Grand Dragon of the Pennsylvania KKK, and an attractive 32-year-old blonde-haired woman who refused to identify herself. She told the crowd that she was indecently assaulted by a Negro last year in her home in Chester County, Pa. She said her alleged assailant was acquitted of the charge because of politicians who were afraid to prosecute a Negro.

Frankhouser delivered a 25-minute diatribe against Negroes. He praised Lester Maddox and Mrs. George Wallace, who are running for the governorship of Georgia and Alabama, respectively.

When [] arrived at FRANKHOUSER's home this morning REGINA KUPISZEWSKI was there. FRANKHOUSER later told [] that he and REGINA were going to see an attorney at 2:30 PM this afternoon to reach a settlement about [] [] drove FRANKHOUSER to Bills Bait Shop where FRANKHOUSER picked up his new .22 Ruger automatic. FRANKHOUSER and [] then went shooting, but had to fire the gun single shot. FRANKHOUSER explained that he had not left the clip at Bills Bait so that the FBI could not test fire the weapon and get slugs for ballistic comparison. That way if he ever has to use the weapon there will not be any test bullets available to the authorities.

FRANKHOUSER was surprised to hear that [] had been down near Philadelphia last night trying to see []. FRANKHOUSER said that he and [] had been at the Minuteman Meeting held at the George Washington Motor Lodge, King of Prussia. According to FRANKHOUSER this was a Minuteman Meeting, but a lot of Klansmen were present. FRANKHOUSER said that [] did not go because he is broke and would have been ashamed because he could not make a contribution when the collection was taken up.

According to FRANKHOUSER a big crowd was at the meeting, and there was almost a fight. FRANKHOUSER related that TABEUTT was present with a group from New Jersey and wants to be designated an area leader of the Minutemen. It was announced on the loudspeaker system that TABEUTT was present, and that he was a Stobl Pigeon. TABEUTT and FRANKHOUSER also had an argument about the money that TABEUTT owes FRANKHOUSER, and [] was about to slug TABEUTT. TABEUTT called the local police who escorted him out for his own safety. TABEUTT told FRANKHOUSER to "take me to court" and FRANKHOUSER told TABEUTT he had his own "court of last resort, which was usually fatal". []

The letter referred to in referenced airtel was prepared and mailed in Upstate Pennsylvania on 10/1/66. On 11/4/66, Philadelphia Office received a copy of a report from [redacted], reflecting the informant had been in touch with ROBERT SHELTON at Tuscaloosa, Ala. The informant reported that ROBERT SHELTON, Imperial Wizard, United Klans of America, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (UKA), in his conversation to the group, which included the informant, stated that ROY FRANKHOUSER of Pennsylvania had been removed as Grand Dragon for conduct unbecoming a Klansman. Over the weekend of 11/5-6/66, FRANKHOUSER went to New Jersey to participate with FRANK M. ROTELLA, the expelled grand dragon of New Jersey, in a cross burning ceremony of ROTELLA's new organization, the White Crusaders.

On 11/5/66, [redacted] made available a written report of a Klavern meeting of the United Klans of America, held at 543 Mail, Keystone Avenue, Upper Darby, Pa. This was both a meeting and an initiation. VERNON HAINES, Grand Titan of Delaware, came to this meeting to participate in the initiation ceremony. At this ceremony, HAINES announced that ROY FRANKHOUSER had been kicked out of the United Klan by Imperial Wizard ROBERT SHELTON. HAINES also stated that GEORGE HOKER will now be in charge in Pennsylvania.

[redacted] has previously reported that since early October, Klan activities in the Reading, Pa., area have practically ceased.

On 11/16/66, other sources in Reading advised that ROY FRANKHOUSER, JR., is talking of leaving the Reading, Pa., area and settling elsewhere; among places named as possibilities were New Jersey, Washington, D. C., or Delaware.

It would appear from the above that the counter-intelligence efforts against ROY E. The informant will be questioned for more specific information regarding the charges against [].

On Friday November 11 [redacted] recieved a call from [redacted] and he told him he would be in York Sunday for sure and he asked if they had yet found a place to meet. [redacted] told him that [redacted] knew of a lonely stretch of woodland where they could meet and not be seen. Earlier in the week [redacted] had asked [redacted] to contact [redacted] and see if they could not meet at his place. [redacted] said he was expecting a lot of people and it would be impossible.

On Saturday night late [redacted] called and asked [redacted] if they had found a better place to meet, and [redacted] told him they had not. [redacted] then told [redacted] to bring his group to his place and they could meet in one of the rooms. He also told [redacted] that he would surprise him when they arrived.

On Sunday about noon [redacted] and [redacted] arrived at [redacted]'s house and a few minutes later [redacted] and [redacted] also arrived. From there they went to [redacted]'s. When they arrived [redacted] introduced [redacted] and his group to [redacted] and told [redacted] that they were now ready to join the klan. [redacted] had placed several other calls to potential members but they did not show up. However the man who lives at [redacted]'s by the name of [redacted] was asked to join but he declined, not because he did not believe in their cause but because of the money situation at the present time. He did say he would join later and that what he had seen and heard he would not reveal.

When he left [redacted] and [redacted] stood up to be sworn in. They had [redacted] read to them part of the ceremony and [redacted] read the rest of it. The reason [redacted] was sworn in is because even though he had been a former klansman it was necessary to repeat it. There was also quite a bit of discussion about how much money [redacted] had already sent to Reading to Frankhouser. [redacted] had with him two cancelled checks. One was for ten dollars and the other for eighteen. The look that [redacted] gave [redacted] from across the room [redacted] said he was in doubt as to whether the money was ever turned in by Frankhouser. They asked [redacted] for the cancelled checks and the two letters from Frankhouser and told him they would return same to him. They also got on the subject of [redacted] and told everybody present that the K.B.I. (klan bureau of investigation) was tracking him down now, and they would bring him back to Oxford to stand trial.

[redacted] announced to everyone present that until the York chapter reached 25 [redacted] would be appointed temporarily [redacted] since he was on disability and would have more time to work on mailing etc. All application forms were then turned over to [redacted] with a group of other papers specially made to keep a complete record on each member. These forms were filled out and they contain information such as weight, age, color of eyes and hair, occupation and blood type. [redacted] was then told to burn the original applications when he got home because they contained the signatures of the new klansman and this would be the only evidence to connect them with the klan in the event they were ever investigated by the F.B.I. All members are paid up and in good standing till January 1st 1967. After the dues and initiation fees were paid [redacted] left $24.00 with [redacted] and told him that until the local chapter reached 25 members that his group was to keep all money collected so they could build up a nice treasury.

[redacted] and [redacted] then told the members present how to go about building a cross and how with a pack of matches and a lit cigarette they could be in their homes before it ever ignited. The thoughts of the members was that if they ever did burn a cross it would be on [redacted]'s lawn who is [redacted] in York. They were also cautioned to use light weight gloves while the construction of the cross was being built because usually the burlap burns but not the wood and the F.B.I could get prints from the wood.

They played a long playing record at the end of the meeting that was strictly anti Jewish. On the other side of this record was a story of how L.B.J and the negroes were plotting to take over the United States. They also gave out literature [redacted] in which you will find enclosed.

[redacted] was driving a 1963 [redacted] in color bearing Delaware tags [redacted]

Saturday, November 12, 1966

At about 8 PM this date [] visited ROY FRANKHOUSER at the latter's home 133 S. 4th St., Reading, Pa. FRANKHOUSER was depressed. He said that he had gotten a job with [], a local contractor, but had only worked one day. According to what FRANKHOUSER said, [] had not realized who

ROY [] was until FRANKHOUSER's step-father [] went to [] to thank him for giving FRANKHOUSER a chance. [] told FRANKHOUSER that he would rehire him if

FRANKHOUSER would run an add in the local papers renouncing his Klan affiliations, FRANKHOUSER refused to do this, saying he would never renounce his beliefs.

FRANKHOUSER was asked by [] if there was any truth to the rumor that FRANKHOUSER had been kicked out of the Klan and he vehemently denied this.

FRANKHOUSER said that the White Crusaders was actually a Klan front group and was set up to take pressure off the Klan itself.

FRANKHOUSER spoke of his financial condition. He said that "ROGER" had brought some canned food to FRANKHOUSER's home but while ROY was out REGINA KUPL-

SZEWSKI entered the house and took it herself. FRANKHOUSER also said that he owes the Telephone Company about $ 160 on his bill. He had in his possession some legal paper or notice regarding his appeal on his arrest recently for picketing in Philadelphia, Pa., this was signed by an attorney named []. In addition he owes bills to the gas and electric company and has the $ 35 payments to the Bank on the mortgage to meet.

FRANKHOUSER said he is selling a lot of his possessions to raise money.

He said that he had sold a .38 revolver and a lot of his souvenirs. FRANKHOUSER wanted

[] to purchase a pair of field glasses, but [] hesitated because they do not have a case. FRANKHOUSER said he would see if he could pick up a case at some pawnshop.

[] and FRANKHOUSER discussed the recent arrest of Minutemen in New

York and FRANKHOUSER mentioned by name the Camps that these men had planned to attack. FRANKHOUSER indicated that he was familiar with these "Commie Camps". FRANKHOUSER said that ROGER was right in not attending the Minuteman Meeting recently held in Media, that there was too much "heat" on the Minutemen now.

[] gave FRANKHOUSER $ 10 to use for food or as he saw fit.

b6
b7C FRANKHOUSER accepted this but only reluctantly, and he gave [] about 75 rounds of reloaded 30'06 ammunition. FRANKHOUSER had two small metal boxes full of this ammunition, about 1,000 rounds. He cautioned [] that these reloads were "hot", that is very powerful.

FRANKHOUSER said that the "Peace Creeps" had demonstrated at the Post Office in Reading, Pa., again this weekend.

b6
b7C FRANKHOUSER said that he is leaving Reading, Pa., for good. He said that he expects to leave about Tuesday, 11/15/66, but has not decided just where he will settle. He mentioned Baltimore, Md., Washington, D.C., and Virginia as possible locations. Other than saying that he would have to get a job, FRANKHOUSER did not mention any other plans, but promised to keep in touch with [].

CLAYTON W. TABBUTT
RM - (KLAN)

On 12/28/66 Colonel PHILLIP NEUWEILER, Pennsylvania Wing Commander, Civil Air Patrol (CAP), and owner of Neuweiler Brewery, Allentown, Pa., advised as follows:

CLAYTON TABBUTT appeared in Neuweiler's Brewery, 401 North Front Street, Allentown, about 9 a.m. this date. He told Colonel NEUWEILER that he had applied for but had been refused a private detective's license by Judge DAVIS of Philadelphia. The refusal was allegedly based on TABBUTT's request of Colonel NEUWEILER's several months ago for NEUWEILER to drop UKA, KKKK Anti-Negro propaganda pamphlets from NEUWEILER's plane.

TABBUTT stated he told Judge DAVIS he never actually saw one of the pamphlets and did not know what the pamphlets contained.

TABBUTT told NEUWEILER that he discussed Judge DAVIS' refusal to grant him the private detective's license with his brother, EUGENE. They decided that only two persons, ROY FRANKHOUSER in Reading and Colonel NEUWEILER knew about the above mentioned request by TABBUTT of NEUWEILER.

TABBUTT told Colonel NEUWEILER his brother and himself decided that ROY FRANKHOUSER had probably turned CLAYTON TABBUTT into the authorities who made this information available to Judge DAVIS.

TABBUTT damned FRANKHOUSER as an opportunist and said FRANKHOUSER now supported the Jews and was probably working with B'NAI B'RITH.

RACIAL DEMONSTRATION
NEWARK DIVISION
BRIDGETON - CEDARVILLE,
NEW JERSEY,
NOVEMBER 5, 1966

Reference is made to memo, dated November 16, 1966, at Newark, New Jersey, under captioned title.

Detective [redacted], Troop A Headquarters,
New Jersey State Police, Hammonton, New Jersey, advised on November 19, 1966, that a rally and cross-burning were held by the White Crusaders on the farm of [redacted] [redacted], Upper Deerfield Township, New Jersey, during the hours of 8:00 to 8:55 p.m., that date. He stated that approximately 75-85 spectators were present to hear speeches by Frank W. Rotella, Jr., local leader of the White Crusaders (WS), Layton Braun, of Baltimore, Maryland, and Roy Frankhouser, of Reading, Pennsylvania. He said that at the conclusion of the speeches, Rotella lighted the cross. He added that no violence occurred during the course of the rally and cross-burning.

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised as follows on November 20, 1966:

The WC rally and cross-burning on November 19, 1966 was opened by Frank W. Rotella, Jr., at about 8:00 p.m., with the WC Prayer. Rotella explained the use of the fiery cross by the WC, which he described as a Christian Organization, saying that it dates back to the Religious Crusades and is the age long sign of Christianity. He then spoke out against Communism claiming that the Communists are trying to defeat and back up the country through the Negro block. He referred to Martin Luther King as a Communist, saying if he, King, is not actually a member, he at least supports and condones the Communists. Rotella concluded his talk with the remark that it was now the time to organize for white power. Rotella introduced the next speaker as Mr. Braun, from a racially torn town in Maryland.

Braun spoke briefly about defeating the "Negroes" saying that this was possible if everyone present would get out and register and then vote for the right candidates. Braun introduced the main speaker as Roy Frankhouser, self-proclaimed Grand Dragon of the Pennsylvania United Klans of America (UKA), whose talk was highlighted by his tearing out a captured Viet Cong flag.

Frankhouser spoke about the Negro riot in Philadelphia during 1965, where whites were beaten up. He remarked that there were Negroes and "Niggers", and it is only the latter that they were against due to their involvement in riots about the country.

Frankhouser also spoke about the wife of a General attached to the Pentagon having been raped in her apartment in Washington, D.C. during the past week, as well as the wives of a high-ranking official of the State Department and the Assistant Secretary to the President having been attacked during the same week. Frankhouser implied the rape and attacks were by Negroes but did not actually say so. Frankhouser also emphasized the importance of being registered and then voting for the right candidates.

A characterization of the UKA appears in the appendix hereto.

Source observed the individual identified as Mr. Braun from Maryland driving away from the rally in a late model [redacted], possibly a [redacted], bearing Maryland License [redacted]. He described Braun as follows:

MARCH BY UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC.,
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (UKA)
ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY, MARYLAND, August 26, 1966

On August 24, 1966, a confidential source advised that plans had been made by the UKA to march in robes in Anne Arundel County, Maryland, beginning about 6:30 p.m. August 26, 1966, at the Department of Motor Vehicles, Ritchie Highway, Glen Burnie, Maryland. The source advised that ROY C. FRANKHOUSER, a Klan leader from Pennsylvania, and other Klansmen from Pennsylvania were expected to participate in the march.

On August 25, 1966, Captain [REDACTED], Intelligence Unit, Anne Arundel County Police Department, furnished substantially the same information. He advised that the march would be led by LAYTON BRAUN, King Kleagle of the UKA in Maryland and that the group expected to march on foot along the side of the highway from the Maryland Department of Motor Vehicles through the business district of Glen Burnie and out to the firehouse at Ferndale, Maryland, then return to the center of Glen Burnie where they would disperse. He stated that LAYTON BRAUN had advised him that the purpose of the march was to recruit members into the UKA.

PUBLIC ACTIVITIES IN MARYLAND
AUGUST 26-28, 1966

Captain [] advised on August 26, 1966, that the UKA apparently did not obtain the amount of participants that they expected for the march and he advised that the march was replaced by a motorcade consisting of a station wagon and two small open trucks. Six robed Klansmen rode in the open trucks which followed the planned route of the march. The motorcade drew little attention in the heavy traffic in the Glen Burnie area. It started at approximately 7:10 p.m. and finished at 8:15 p.m. The motorcade stopped briefly at the Ferndale firehouse, but no speeches were made. The group dispersed after returning to Glen Burnie. Captain [] advised that there were no incidents and no arrests in connection with this activity.
